HONORS IN DEATH!

The Funeral of Hon. S. S. Cox at New York--Talmage's Eulogy Over the Dead--Floral Tributes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The funeral of the late S. S. Cox occurred at the First Presbyterian church, on Fifth avenue, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. At a few minutes after 9 o'clock the pews began to fill up and by the time the services were begun the doors had to be closed, turning away a large throng that collected on the steps and sidewalk, in spite of the down-pour of rain.

The floral tributes were unusually magnificent and covered the floor of the altar. Among the most noticeable pieces was in the center, just behind the pulpit, a cross six feet high of rosebuds, white carnations, orchids and lillies, and inscribed "Our Friend." It was the gift of the Jersey City letter carrier's association.

The order of Elks sent an urn, composed of red and white roses in a bed of pinks. Above and below the urn were two white doves and the inscription, "Our Firm Friend." The largest and most novel piece came from the letter carriers of New York. It was shaped like a huge envelope of red, white and tea roses, and the postmark, which was of blue immortelles, read "Via New York, 9-10-89, 8:30 p. m., P. O." The superscription, "Our Champion," was in immortelles.

The United States life saving service sent an immense wreath of roses. The Philadelphia letter carriers sent a large pillow of roses with the legend, "He was our friend."

At twenty minutes past 10 the funeral cortege arrived. The first in the line were Grover Cleveland and Vice-President Morton. Immediately behind came General Sherman and Judge Daley, M. H. Northrop, John T. Agnew, George Hoadley, Douglas Taylor, S. J. Kimball and George Francis Train. Then came the bier.

Sergeant-at-arms J. H. Leodem, of the house of representatives, took charge of the ceremonies. Chaplain W. H. Melburn, of the house of representatives, officiated, assisted by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage and Rev. Dr. Deems. Eight letter carriers, in full uniform, occupied the third seat from the front to the left of the casket and directly in front of the house servants and colored valet of Mr. Cox.

Following the voluntary the quartet sang, "The Lord is My Shepherd." Then the Rev. W. H. Melburn, chaplain of the house of representatives, recited a selection from the 15th chapter, 1st Epistles, St. Paul: "Now is Christ Risen From the Dead." The quartet then sung a hymn, when the Rev. Melburn delivered an address eulogistic of the deceased. Among other things he said:

"A less selfish man than Samuel S. Cox has probably never appeared in this country, a large hearted man—full of sympathy—it was his heart not his head with which he won his way to his high position. His name will be remembered for many a decade for his singleness of purpose, and his desire to help those who were unable to help themselves."

The Rev. DeWitt Talmage then spoke at length. Among other things he said:

"A wide, deep chasm is left when such a man as this dies. We shall not see his like again. Within the last few hours the life saving service has saved the lives of half a hundred drowning seaman. Here lies the remains of the champion and promoter of that grand enterprise.

"Firm as a rock, artless as a child, pure as a woman, God endowed him with a wit, a faculty of mimicry seldom seen. There was in our friend's mirth no inuendoes, no sneer, nothing inappropriate.

"Good-bye, old friend of many years. We will be again together in the next world. Oh, come down and meet us at the shining gates when our time comes to enter."

Dr. Deems then advanced to the casket and read the burial service. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer and the benediction. At twenty minutes after 11 o'clock the casket was borne out, preceded by Sergeant-at-Arms Leadom and the congressional representatives, the letter carriers and pallbearers. Thousands of people crowded the streets in front and around the church, and when the casket was borne out to the hearse every head was bared, regardless of the pouring rain.

Many prominent men, Gens. tz John Porter, Sherman, Ewing, Ex-President Cleveland, Judge Daly, John I. Keernan, Congressman McCarthy and others formed a double line between which the relatives and friends of the deceased passed from the church to the carriages and followed the remains to the vault in Greenwood.

MRS. OTTO SIEMON.

The Demise of a Fort Wayne Lady at Washington, D. C.--The Community Bereft of a Good Woman.

On Thursday afternoon, at Washington, D. C., occurred the death of Mrs. Otto Siemon, wife of the well-known professor at Concordia college.

Quite recently Mr. and Mrs. Siemon went to Washington, where the lady was treated by Dr. Hammond, a highly reputed physician, and it was thought she would recover from the serious nervous affection which had clung to her for about a year past.

Hence, when it was supposed the lady was on the eve of recovery, her demise comes with a greater pang of sorrow to the many who knew her. She was a woman much loved and respected. She was a devoted wife, affectionate mother and an amiable woman. She was the daughter of Mr. C. F. G. Meyer, of the wholesale drug firm of Meyer Bros. & Co., of St. Louis, and daughter-in-law of Mr. August Siemon, of the firm of Siemon & Bro., this city. A husband and three young children survive her.

The remains will probably arrive in the city to-morrow and the funeral arrangements will be announced hereafter.

DEATH OF MRS. WOEBBEKING.

Mrs. Sophia Woebbeking, wife of Christian Woebbeking, of 195 Broadway, died at 9 o'clock, last night, of old age, having attained her 80th year. The deceased emigrated to this country with her husband about forty-five years ago, and lived in Indiana ever since. A husband, three sons and two daughters, survive her; the sons being Henry, a farmer at Woodburn, this county, Conrad, a contractor on Broadway, and Charles, who is now away from home.

The eldest daughter, Mary, is the wife of Frederick Rolf, and the youngest daughter, Sophia, is the wife of Mr. James Matsch, a foreman at the Bass foundry. The funeral will take place Monday at 1:30 p. m. from the house and services will be held at 2 o'clock at Emanuel Lutheran church.

The race will be a handicap, and Dr. George A. Ross will arrange the handicap. A cup will be offered as a prize for the rider making the best time, and a medal will be given to the winner of the race. Captain Keplinger will call a club-run at 1 o'clock and the race will be started between 2 and 3 o'clock. Messrs. Bissell, Edgerton and Ohnhouse were appointed a committee to carry out all necessary arrangements for the race. C. W. Edgerton will officiate as starter, and Messrs. S. A. Bond, August Bruder and Charles Centlivre as timers. Mr. W. S. Bostick was named as the referee. Entries for the race will close October 1.

THE GROOM FAILED TO APPEAR

A Fort Wayne Man Mysteriously Disappears on the Eve of His Wedding.

The Chicago Herald to-day contains the following sensational dispatch relating to the superintendent of the Jenney electric light works of this city:

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Mary B. W. Steere, youngest daughter of Rufus Steere, of this place, was to have been married last evening to Robert Mackie, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Extensive preparations had been made for the ceremony, which was to have occurred at the Presbyterian church at 7 p. m.

Hundreds of invitations had been issued, but for some reason not yet made public he failed to shop up. The groom arrived here from Fort Wayne on Saturday night. On Monday he was called to Troy on business, since which time he has not been here.

DECLARED OFF.

The London Dock Strike Reported as Settled.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—A private dispatch from London says the strike has been declared off.

Quite an event in the amusement line here will be the Wagner minstrels at the Temple, on Monday next. The company is a large one and better still an excellent one in point of talent. Cal Wagner alone is a host in himself, but with such surroundings as the famous Billy Birch, Cool Burgess, Charles Heywood, John Mack, Charles Henry, the Manhattan sextette, and a score of equally fine performers, the troupe stands unchallenged in artistic merit. Mr. Wagner makes a strong feature of the introductory scene, which is specially his own invention and for which he carries his own scenery. That a crowded house will greet the company here is a foregone conclusion.

Miss Nellie McHenry presents "Green Room Fun" at the Temple to-morrow night. The fun hinges on the haps and mishaps of a party of amateurs who are preparing for the presentation of an Indian drama for the benefit of infant cannibals. From a little quaint humor at first, just enough to excite the risibilities and induce a gentle smile, it grows and spreads, gradually increasing in volume until tha curtain goes down on the mock and real show, leaving the audience holding their sore sides and wonder what they are laughing about.

Last evening a horse belonging to Dr. A. P. Buchman became frightened at the new steam roller to be used on the new asphalt pavement. The doctor's daughter was the sole occupant of the vehicle and could not manage the animal. A wheel was taken off the buggy and other damages done, but the young lady escaped unharmed. A horse belonging to Mr. Fred Helling became frightened at the same object and ran away on Harrison street.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 13, 1889.

TANNER had to go. If he had kept a civil tongue in his head he might have served his term out.

THE summer vacation of the school children is nearly ended. The city schools begin next Monday.

THE Republican office seekers will not be satisfied now until "Old Rosy" is ousted from the office of register of the treasury department.

FORT WAYNE will soon be burning natural gas. Let us boom the city then and make an effort to secure more manufacturing establishments.

THE LAST OF EARTH.

The funeral of Hon. S. S. Cox, New York's dead congressman, took place in that city to-day, and he was given a burial, as will be seen by our telegraphic columns, fitting the great man that he was. The death of Mr. Cox was not only a loss to the democratic party, of which he was a brilliant leader, but to the country, whose interests he had at heart and for whose welfare he always labored, both in and out of congress.

No member of that body was more useful or had a more thorough knowledge of parliamentary law or was more accurately informed upon passing events than he, and for this reason his opinions were given weight, and he was a leader whose courage of convictions was always admired.

He did not wait to see what was the popular side of a question, but determined his position by his own ideas of its merits. He was able to rise above narrow partisanship and because of this liberality his opinions were valued by both parties. His death closes a busy and useful life and ends a clean and honorable record.

He was a member from the Ninth congressional district of New York. The vacancy will be filled by a special election, for which Governor Hill will doubtless issue the writ promptly. As the district is securely democratic the death of Mr. Cox will not affect the political balance of the new house, though it will be impossible for any new man to fill the place which Mr. Cox had long held either on the floor or in his party councils.

TANNER'S RESIGNATION.

The story of the pension commissioner and his fall is a story of personal hatreds, jealousies, indiscretion and recklessness. The internal troubles of the interior department began with Tanner's appointment. The head of the pension office, living, as he does, in the public eye, handling great trusts and dispensing an immense patronage, is more influential than any other bureau chief and in rank second only to a cabinet minister. The president, against the wishes of several of his advisers and the opposition of a part of the New York delegation, appointed Mr. Tanner. It was his personal choice, and independent of political considerations.

He had met Tanner first in the campaign of 1876, when the president ran for governor in Indiana, and had stumped the state with him. He liked his bluff ways and vigorous qualities. Last year Tanner stopped at Indianapolis on his way to California, where Morris M. Estee had secured him a profitable position. His wife and family were with him and he intended to settle there. While in Indianapolis he called upon Mr. Harrison, who prevailed upon him to give up the California project, to sell his railroad tickets, to send his family back to Brooklyn, and to stay and stump the state for Harrison and Morton. His reward was the pension commissionership.

Mr. Noble did not like Tanner. The secretary is a moody, masterly man; the commissioner impulsive and headstrong. It was the irresistible against the irrepressible. Mr. Noble began to annoy and harass the new commissioner. He revoked his appointments, supplanted his friends, forced upon him, in numberless instances, undesirable people, and kept up a ceaseless and sometimes a petty warfare. Mr. Tanner, though a subordinate, compelled in most cases to submit, would not conceal at any time his contempt for his superior and toward the end openly defied him.

Then began about two months ago the press war on Tanner, based upon his action in making special a large number of pension cases, his rerating of a large number of other cases, the action of some of his subordinates in rerating, the appointment of members of his family to places in the service, and his intemperate interviews and speeches. At the beginning of the newspaper attacks Mr. Tanner, who had engagements to speak at Ottawa, Kan., and other places, canceled them, The president, who heard of it, asked why he had done so.

"I am under fire," said he, "and I want to stay and take care of myself."

"Go and make your speeches; I will take care of you," replied Mr. Harrison, and he did take care of him until strong questions of political expediency had arisen and forced matters to a conclusion.

The criticism of Mr. Tanner's management of the pension office gave Mr. Noble an opportunity to appoint the investigating committee which has been at work for five weeks in a far away nook of the pension building. The finale of it all was the threat of Secretary Noble to resign if Tanner was not dismissed. This brought the climax and Tanner was forced to resign.

Peculiar

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

SECOND POINT

You should read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because you have the time to read it. There is a paper published in Australia which is as large as a blanket. This wouldn't suit you. You want a newspaper at once convenient, complete and condensed, and still you don't want to overlook anything of real importance. You don't want your neighbor to say to you, "Did you read so-and-so in to-day's paper? and be obliged to answer, "No, I didn't see that," and then have him ask you, "What paper do you read?" This will never happen to you if you read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

Remember—Its circulation is 220,000 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail 25 cts. a month, four months $1.00,—one cent a day.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 13, 1889.

GOSSIP OF THE TRACK.

The News of the Day as Gathered by the Sentinel Reporter Around the Busy Centers.

The Wabash pay car will be here on the 19th.

The Olds wagon and wheel works paid to-day.

The Grand Rapids road paid their employes to-day.

The freight agents of the city held a meeting this afternoon.

General Foreman Frank Tyrell, of the Wabash shops, is at Chicago.

Frank Cairns, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, has been sick for several days.

Fred Smith, formerly of the Kerr Murray works, is now employed at Detroit.

H. A. Lloyd, general claim agent and assistant secretary of the Wabash, was in the city last evening.

Fred C. Miller, engineer at the Berghoff brewery, is quite sick at his home, No. 444 East Washington street.

E. W. Cook, cashier at the Wabash freight office, leaves this evening for a trip to Salt Lake City and the west.

The Wabash is arranging to run a cheap excursion to the Detroit International exhibition which opens September 17.

Thomas B. Messler, third vice-president of the Pennsylvania company, who has been so seriously ill, is reported to be improving.

John H. Polan, formerly a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, has opened a confectionary manufactory at the corner of Lafayette and Hamilton streets.

William Rhodes, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, who has been sick for some time, is improving and will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

The condition of William Tieman, of East Washington street, the man injured last week at the Pittsburg car shops, is reported as being one of improvement.

The convention of the freight agents of all the railroads entering this city, which was in session in this city yesterday, adopted a new freight tariff which will be made public in a few weeks.

Wm. Wurtle, of the Jenny electric light works, who is one of the best marksmen in the city, is making arrangements for a shooting match between himself and Mr. Grull, of Chicago. They will shoot at one hundred birds for $100 a side.

William Rogers, assistant foreman and one of the oldest employes of the Pittsburg boiler shops, was quite badly injured yesterday while working around a hoisting machine in his department. He was taken home and will be absent from duty for some time.

The surgeons on the Wabash road will hold their next annual meeting in Toledo the first Thurday in November. As this road was the first to adopt the system of employing surgeons, and through its influence the national association was organized, their actions are looked upon with more than ordinary interest, as each year features are introduced which greatly enhance the value of their services.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has been cited to appear by official representation before the inter-state commerce commission Next Tuesday to explain why it charges a rate of 20 cents per 100 on corn and 25 cents on corn products from Chicago to the seaboard. The hearing is to be held in Indianapolis and is brought about by complaint of the Indiana, Illinois and Ohio millers, who set up the charge of discrimination. It will be remembered that all the eastbound roads except the Chicago and Grand Trunk have been making these rates since August 1, the Baltimore and Ohio being responsible.

THE LIBRARY FAIR.

The Opening Night Attended by a Large Crowd and Much Joyous Demonstration.

Last night at Library Hall was inaugurated the third annual Library Hall fair and festival.

The event was proposed for the purpose of removing the indebtedness on the magnificent building in which the fair is held, a thing that will doubtless be accomplished, for there seems to be a united exertion on the part of a large corps of helpers.

The opening last night was made conspicuous by a gorgeous street parade, in which the following societies participated:

Knights of St. Charles, Emmet Commandery, C. B. L., Catholic Benevolent Legion, Decatur, Catholic Knights, New Haven, St. Bernard Council, C. K. of A. and Catholic Knights, Columbia City.

The City and First Regiment bands furnished music.

The procession moved to the city hall and met Mayor Harding and the members of the common council, who were then escorted to the fair.

When Vicar General J. H. Brammer had called the immense gathering to order, Mayor Harding introduced Hon. Allen Zollars, who made a brief but interesting address on the founding of Library hall, its purposes, privileges, and benefits. He alluded in complimentary terms to Rev. Father Brammer, who conceived the idea of erecting the building, which cost $85,000. There is still, he said, an indebtedness of $29,000 to efface, which was the object of the present fair. The speaker said that with an effort this debt could be raised and leave unincumbered, a beautiful and useful monument to perpetuate the name of the worthy reverend father.

At the close of Judge Zollars' remarks three cheers were voluntered and given with a hearty good will.

The booths are prettily arranged. They are resplendent in decorations, and the whole is set off by incandescent electric lights. It is impossible in limited space, to give a description of the various features.

At frequent intervals during the evening the Mandolin orchestra discoursed sweet music, an attraction in itself.

The flower pavilion is another beautiful booth, presided over by Misses H. Fry, Mollie Fox, Katie Fox, Carrie Schiefer, Fannie Schiefer, Mamie Langard, Clara Langard, Mary McCarty, Agnes Baker, Lulu Fry and Genie Skelley.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purcha[se]. The large bottles are 50c and [$1]. We certainly would advise a tri[al] that may save you from consumption.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope County, Illinois last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Waltersburg, sold over 380 bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy during this epidemic, and say that they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. 25 and 60 cent bottles for sale by Geo. H. Loesch.

A Cruiser Lost.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—There was some anxiety about the Navy department yesterday regarding the safety of the new steam cruiser Atlanta. She left New York on Monday bound for Newport and nothing has been heard from her. Secretary Tracy has been telegraphing to points from which news might be expected in hopes that he can get some tidings of her.

Pimples, boils, and other humors are liable to appear when the blood gets heated. To cure them, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

In reply would say that your Loose's Extract Red Clover Blossoms is meeting with a large and rapidly increasing sale with us and that it gives excellent satisfaction. The mystery has been solved at last;
Our teeth no longer need decay,
All troubles of the mouth are past,
By SOZODONT they're swept away;
And young and old may smile secure
With lips and teeth so bright and pure.

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient."

Catarrh is not simply an inconvenience, unpleasant to the sufferer and disgusting to others—it is an advanced outpost of approaching disease of worse type. Do not neglect its warning; it brings deadly evils in its train. Before it is too late, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It reaches the seat of the ailment, and is the only thing that will. You may dose yourself with quack medicines 'till it is too late—' till the streamlet becomes a resistless torrent. It is the matured invention of a scientific physician. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

HONORS IN DEATH!

The Funeral of Hon. S. S. Cox at New York—Talmage's Eulogy Over the Dead—Floral Tributes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The funeral of the late S. S. Cox occurred at the First Presbyterian church, on Fifth avenue, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. At a few minutes after 9 o'clock the pews began to fill up and by the time the services were begun the doors had to be closed, turning away a large throng that collected on the steps and sidewalk, in spite of the down-pour of rain.

The floral tributes were unusually magnificent and covered the floor of the altar. Among the most noticeable pieces was in the center, just behind the pulpit, a cross six feet high of rosebuds, white carnations, orchids and lillies, and inscribed "Our Friend." It was the gift of the Jersey City letter carrier's association.

The order of Elks sent an urn, composed of red and white roses in a bed of pinks. Above and below the urn were two white doves and the inscription, "Our Firm Friend." The largest and most novel piece came from the letter carriers of New York. It was shaped like a huge envelope of red, white and tea rose, and the postmark, which was of blue immortelles, read "Via New York, 9-10-89, 8:30 p. m., P. O." The superscription, "Our Champion," was in immortelles.

The United States life saving service sent an immense wreath of roses. The Philadelphia letter carriers sent a large pillow of roses with the legend, "He was our friend."

At twenty minutes past 10 the funeral cortege arrived. The first in the line were Grover Cleveland and Vice-President Morton. Immediately behind came General Sherman and Judge Daley, M. H. Northrop, John T. Agnew, George Hoadley, Douglas Taylor, S. J. Kimball and George Francis Train. Then came the bier.

Sergeant-at-arms J. H. Leedem, of the house of representatives, took charge of the ceremonies. Chaplain W. H. Milburn, of the house of representatives, officiated, assisted by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage and Rev. Dr. Deems. Eight letter carriers, in full uniform, occupied the third seat from the front to the left of the casket and directly in front of the house servants and colored valet of Mr. Cox.

Following the voluntary the quartet sang, "The Lord is My Shepherd." Then the Rev. W. H. Milburn, chaplain of the house of representatives, recited a selection from the 15th chapter, 1st Epistles, St. Paul: "Now is Christ Risen From the Dead." The quartet then sung a hymn, when the Rev. Milburn delivered an address eulogistic of the deceased. Among other things he said:

"A less selfish man than Samuel S. Cox has probably never appeared in this country, a large hearted man—full of sympathy—it was his heart not his head with which he won his way to his high position. His name will be remembered for many a decade for his singleness of purpose, and his desire to help those who were unable to help themselves."

The Rev. DeWitt Talmage then spoke at length. Among other things he said:

"A wide, deep chasm is left when such a man as this dies. We shall not see his like again. Within the last few hours the life saving service has saved the lives of half a hundred drowning seaman. Here lies the remains of the champion and promoter of that grand enterprise.

"Firm as a rock, artless as a child, pure as a woman, God endowed him with a wit, a faculty of mimicry seldom seen. There was in our friend's mirth no inuendoes, no sneer, nothing inappropriate.

"Good-bye, old friend of many years. We will be again together in the next world. Oh, come down and meet us at the shining gates when our time comes to enter."

Dr. Deems then advanced to the casket and read the burial service. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer and the benediction. At twenty minutes after 11 o'clock the casket was borne out, preceded by Sergeant-at-Arms Leedom and the congressional representatives, the letter carriers and pall-bearers. Thousands of people crowded the streets in front and around the church, and when the casket was borne out to the hearse every head was bared, regardless of the pouring rain.

Many prominent men, Gens. John Porter, Sherman, Ewing, Ex-President Cleveland, Judge Daly, John I. Keernan, Congressman McCarthy and others formed a double line between which the relatives and friends of the deceased passed from the church to the carriages and followed the remains to the vault in Greenwood.

MRS. OTTO SIEMON.

The Demise of a Fort Wayne Lady at Washington, D. C.—The Community Bereft of a Good Woman.

On Thursday afternoon, at Washington, D. C., occurred the death of Mrs. Otto Siemon, wife of the well-known professor at Concordia college.

Quite recently Mr. and Mrs. Siemon went to Washington, where the lady was treated by Dr. Hammond, a highly reputed physician, and it was thought she would recover from the serious nervous affection which had clung to her for about a year past.

Hence, when it was supposed the lady was on the eve of recovery, her demise comes with a greater pang of sorrow to the many who knew her. She was a woman much loved and respected. She was a devoted wife, affectionate mother and an amiable woman. She was the daughter of Mr. C. F. G. Meyer, of the wholesale drug firm of Meyer Bros. & Co., of St. Louis, and daughter-in-law of Mr. August Siemon, of the firm of Siemon & Bro., this city. A husband and three young children survive her.

The remains will probably arrive in the city to-morrow and the funeral arrangements will be announced hereafter.

DEATH OF MRS. WOEBBEKING.

Mrs. Sophia Woebbeking, wife of Christian Woelbeking, of 195 Broadway, died at 9 o'clock, last night, of old age, having attained her 80th year. The deceased emigrated to this country with her husband about forty-five years ago, and lived in Indiana ever since. A husband, three sons and two daughters, survive her; the sons being Henry, a farmer at Woodburn, this county, Conrad, a contractor on Broadway, and Charles, who is now away from home.

The eldest daughter, Mary, is the wife of Frederick Rolf, and the youngest daughter, Sophia, is the wife of Mr. James Mutch, a foreman at the Bass foundry. The funeral will take place Monday at 1:30 p. m. from the house and services will be held at 2 o'clock at Emanuel Lutheran church.

The race will be a handicap, and Dr. George A. Ross will arrange the handicap. A cup will be offered as a prize for the rider making the best time, and a medal will be given to the winner of the race. Captain Keplinger will call a club-run at 1 o'clock and the race will be started between 2 and 3 o'clock. Messrs. Bissell, Edgerton and Ohnhouse were appointed a committee to carry out all necessary arrangements for the race. C. W. Edgerton will officiate as starter, and Messrs. S. A. Bond, August Bruder and Charles Centliver as timers. Mr. W. S. Bostick was named as the referee. Entries for the race will close October 1.

THE GROOM FAILED TO APPEAR

A Fort Wayne Man Mysteriously Disappears on the Eve of His Wedding.

The Chicago Herald to-day contains the following sensational dispatch relating to the superintendent of the Jenney electric light works of this city:

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Mary B. W. Steere, youngest daughter of Rufus Steere, of this place, was to have been married last evening to Robert Mackie, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Extensive preparations had been made for the ceremony, which was to have occurred at the Presbyterian church at 7 p. m.

DECLARED OFF.

The London Dock Strike Reported as Settled.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—A private dispatch from London says the strike has been declared off.

Quite an event in the amusement line here will be the Wagner minstrels at the Temple, on Monday next. The company is a large one and better still an excellent one in point of talent. Carl Wagner alone is a host in himself, but with such surroundings as the famous Billy Birch, Cool Burgess, Charles Heywood, John Mack, Charles Henry, the Manhattan sextette, and a score of equally fine performers, the troupe stands unchallenged in artistic merit. Mr. Wagner makes a strong feature of the introductory scene, which is specially his own invention and for which he carries his own scenery. That a crowded house will greet the company here is a foregone conclusion.

Miss Nellie McHenry presents "Green Room Fun" at the Temple to-morrow night. The fun hinges on the haps and mishaps of a party of amateurs who are preparing for the presentation of an Indian drama for the benefit of infant cannibals. From a little quaint humor at first, just enough to excite the risibilities and induce a gentle smile, it grows and spreads, gradually increasing in volume until the curtain goes down on the mock and real show, leaving the audience holding their sore sides and wonder what they are laughing about.

Last evening a horse belonging to Dr. A. P. Buchman became frightened at the new steam roller to be used on the new asphalt pavement. The doctor's daughter was the sole occupant of the vehicle and could not manage the animal. A wheel was taken off the buggy and other damages done, but the young lady escaped unharmed. A horse belonging to Mr. Fred Helling became frightened at the same object and ran away on Harrison street.

TANNER had to go. If he had kept a civil tongue in his head he might have served his term out.

THE summer vacation of the school children is nearly ended. The city schools begin next Monday.

THE Republican office seekers will not be satisfied now until "Old Rosy" is ousted from the office of register of the treasury department.

FORT WAYNE will soon be burning natural gas. Let us boom the city then and make an effort to secure more manufacturing establishments.

THE LAST OF EARTH.

The funeral of Hon. S. S. Cox, New York's dead congressman, took place in that city to-day, and he was given a burial, as will be seen by our telegraphic columns, fitting the great man that he was. The death of Mr. Cox was not only a loss to the democratic party, of which he was a brilliant leader, but to the country, whose interests he had at heart and for whose welfare he always labored, both in and out of congress.

No member of that body was more useful or had a more thorough knowledge of parliamentary law or was more accurately informed upon passing events than he, and for this reason his opinions were given weight, and he was a leader whose courage of convictions was always admired.

He did not wait to see what was the popular side of a question, but determined his position by his own ideas of its merits. He was able to rise above narrow partisanship and because of this liberality his opinions were valued by both parties. His death closes a busy and useful life and ends a clean and honorable record.

He was a member from the Ninth congressional district of New York. The vacancy will be filled by a special election, for which Governor Hill will doubtless issue the writ promptly. As the district is securely democratic the death of Mr. Cox will not affect the political balance of the new house, though it will be impossible for any new man to fill the place which Mr. Cox had long held either on the floor or in his party councils.

TANNER'S RESIGNATION.

The story of the pension commissioner and his fall is a story of personal hatreds, jealousies, indiscretion and recklessness. The internal troubles of the interior department began with Tanner's appointment. The head of the pension office, living, as he does, in the public eye, handling great trusts and dispensing an immense patronage, is more influential than any other bureau chief and in rank second only to a cabinet minister. The president, against the wishes of several of his advisers and the opposition of a part of the New York delegation, appointed Mr. Tanner. It was his personal choice, and independent of political considerations.

He had met Tanner first in the campaign of 1876, when the president ran for governor in Indiana, and had stumped the state with him. He liked his bluff ways and vigorous qualities. Last year Tanner stopped at Indianapolis on his way to California, where Morris M. Estee had secured him a profitable position. His wife and family were with him and he intended to settle there. While in Indianapolis he called upon Mr. Harrison, who prevailed upon him to give up the California project, to sell his railroad tickets, to send his family back to Brooklyn, and to stay and stump the state for Harrison and Morton. His reward was the pension commissionership.

Mr. Noble did not like Tanner. The secretary is a moody, masterly man; the commissioner impulsive and headstrong. It was the irresistible against the irrepressible. Mr. Noble began to annoy and harass the new commissioner. He revoked his appointments, supplanted his friends, forced upon him, in numberless instances, undesirable people, and kept up a ceaseless and sometimes a petty warfare. Mr. Tanner, though a subordinate, compelled in most cases to submit, would not conceal at any time his contempt for his superior and toward the end openly defied him.

Then began about two months ago the press war on Tanner, based upon his action in making special a large number of pension cases, his rerating of a large number of other cases, the action of some of his subordinates in rerating, the appointment of members of his family to places in the service, and his intemperate interviews and speeches. At the beginning of the newspaper attacks Mr. Tanner, who had engagements to speak at Ottawa, Kan., and other places, canceled them. The president, who heard of it, asked why he had done so.

"I am under fire," said he, "and I want to stay and take care of myself."

"Go and make your speeches; I will take care of you," replied Mr. Harrison, and he did take care of him until strong questions of political expediency had arisen and forced matters to a conclusion.

The criticism of Mr. Tanner's management of the pension office gave Mr. Noble an opportunity to appoint the investigating committee which has been at work for five weeks in a far away nook of the pension building. The finale of it all was the threat of Secretary Noble to resign if Tanner was not dismissed. This brought the climax and Tanner was forced to resign.

SECOND POINT

You should read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because you have the latest of it. There is no paper published in Australia which is so large as a blanket. This sounds, I admit you. You want a newspaper at once complete, compact and condensed, and this you don't want to overlook anything of real importance. You don't want your neighbor to say to you, "Did you read so-and-so in to-day's paper?" and be obliged to answer, "No, I didn't see that," and then have him say, "What, never see your own read!" This will never happen to you if you send THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

Remember—its circulation is over 200,000 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail 70 cts. a month, four months $2.50—one cent a day.

GOSSIP OF THE TRACK.

The News of the Day as Gathered by the Sentinel Reporter Around the Busy Centers.

The Wabash pay car will be here on the 19th.

The Olds wagon and wheel works paid to-day.

The Grand Rapids road paid their employes to-day.

The freight agents of the city held a meeting this afternoon.

General Foreman Frank Tyrell, of the Wabash shops, is at Chicago.

Frank Cairns, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, has been sick for several days.

Fred Smith, formerly of the Kerr Murray works, is now employed at Detroit.

H. A. Lloyd, general claim agent and assistant secretary of the Wabash, was in the city last evening.

Fred C. Miller, engineer at the Berghoff brewery, is quite sick at his home, No. 444 East Washington street.

E. W. Cook, cashier at the Wabash freight office, leaves this evening for a trip to Salt Lake City and the west.

The Wabash is arranging to run a cheap excursion to the Detroit International exhibition which opens September 17.

Thomas B. Messler, third vice-president of the Pennsylvania company, who has been so seriously ill, is reported to be improving.

John H. Polan, formerly a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, has opened a confectionary manufactory at the corner of Lafayette and Hamilton streets.

William Rhodes, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, who has been sick for some time, is improving and will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

The condition of William Tiernan, of East Washington street, the man injured last week at the Pittsburg car shops, is reported as being one of improvement.

The convention of the freight agents of all the railroads entering this city, which was in session in this city yesterday, adopted a new freight tariff which will be made public in a few weeks.

Wm. Wurtle, of the Jenny electric light works, who is one of the best marksmen in the city, is making arrangements for a shooting match between himself and Mr. Grull, of Chicago. They will shoot at one hundred birds for $100 a side.

William Rogers, assistant foreman and one of the oldest employes of the Pittsburg boiler shops, was quite badly injured yesterday while working around a hoisting machine in his department. He was taken home and will be absent from duty for some time.

The surgeons on the Wabash road will hold their next annual meeting in Toledo the first Thursday in November. As this road was the first to adopt the system of employing surgeons, and through its influence the national association was organized, their actions are looked upon with more than ordinary interest, as each year features are introduced which greatly enhance the value of their services.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has been cited to appear by official representation before the inter-state commerce commission Next Tuesday to explain why it charges a rate of 20 cents per 100 on corn and 25 cents on corn products from Chicago to the seaboard. The hearing is to be held in Indianapolis and is brought about by complaint of the Indiana, Illinois and Ohio millers, who set up the charge of discrimination. It will be remembered that all the eastbound roads except the Chicago and Grand Trunk have been making these rates since August 1, the Baltimore and Ohio being responsible.

THE LIBRARY FAIR.

The Opening Night Attended by a Large Crowd and Much Joyous Demonstration.

Last night at Library Hall was inaugurated the third annual Library Hall fair and festival.

The event was proposed for the purpose of removing the indebtedness on the magnificent building in which the fair is held, a thing that will doubtless be accomplished, for there seems to be a united exertion on the part of a large corps of helpers.

The opening last night was made conspicuous by a gorgeous street parade, in which the following societies participated:

Knights of St. Charles, Emmet Commandery, C. B. L., Catholic Benevolent Legion, Decatur, Catholic Knights, New Haven, St. Bernard Council, C. K. of A. and Catholic Knights, Columbia City.

The City and First Regiment bands furnished music.

The procession moved to the city hall and met Mayor Harding and the members of the common council, who were then escorted to the fair.

When Vicar General J. H. Brammer had called the immense gathering to order, Mayor Harding introduced Hon. Allen Zollars, who made a brief but interesting address on the founding of Library hall, its purposes, privileges, and benefits. He alluded in complimentary terms to Rev. Father Brammer, who conceived the idea of erecting the building, which cost $85,000. There is still, he said, an indebtedness of $29,000 to efface, which was the object of the present fair. The speaker said that with an effort this debt could be raised and leave unincumbered, a beautiful and useful monument to perpetuate the name of the worthy reverend father.

At the close of Judge Zollars' remarks three cheers were volunteered and given with a hearty good will.

The booths are prettily arranged. They are resplendent in decorations, and the whole is set off by incandescent electric lights. It is impossible in limited space, to give a description of the various features.

At frequent intervals during the evening the Mandolin orchestra discoursed sweet music, an attraction in itself.

THE BOOTHS AND STANDS.

The Rosary society has a place beautifully festooned with evergreens and drapings and is presided over by Mesdames Pat Kane, McDonnett, Cannavo, Moran, Dittoe, Noll and Golden.

The booth of the Young Ladies' society is a magnificent sight within and without, the exterior being draped with myrtle and evergreens, the whole forming a pleasing combination. Misses Mary Kane, May Graff, Kate Kiley, Lizzie McKee, Mattie Viberg, Lizzie Brennan and May Gaffney are in charge and will cordially greet all.

The flower pavilion is another beautiful booth, presided over by Misses H. Fry, Mollie Fox, Katie Fox, Carrie Schiefer, Fannie Schiefer, Mamie Langard, Clara Langard, Mary McCarty, Agnes Baker, Lulu Fry and Genie Skolley.

"Who will try?"—Mesdames Muhler, A. C. Trentman, John Mohr, William P. Breen, Tony Trentman, Misses Zeis Cassanve and Mamie Trentman.

Ring booth—Misses Mollie, Mattie and Flo Clark and Emma Aurentz.

Lemonade booth—Mesdames G. D. Obneck, A. Golden, Miss A. Baker and Mr. E. G. Obneck.

Candy booth—Mesdames Mike Kelly, Julia Legros, Miss E. Tiernan.

Children's booth—Josie Fleming, Anna Summers, Anna Welub, Marie Bombeau, Carrie Trentman, Mattie Keller, Julia Hedekin.

Lunch room—Mesdames Dr. Dinnen, Baughman, Thompson, Misses C. Fleming and Neligan.

NOTES.

It will be a success.

Oh! those pretty girls!

The mandolin orchestra is a drawing feature.

Mr. Will Breen is one of the hard workers.

The voting will shortly begin—then lively times.

The City band will furnish balcony music each evening.

The reporters are cared for by Father Byrne, who cheerfully renders any favors he can.

Michael Gruber has been given a permit to build an addition to his house on lot 676, Hanna's addition, to cost $200; Fred C. Kadisch, to build a two-story frame house on lot 25, Bond's 2d addition, to cost $1,000; Mary E. Brunel, a one and a half story frame house on lot 142, Williams' addition, to cost $2,000.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope County, Illinois last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Walterburg, sold over 380 bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy during this epidemic, and say that they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. 25 and 60 cent bottles for sale by Geo. H. Loesch.

A Cruiser Lost.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—There was some anxiety about the Navy department yesterday regarding the safety of the new steam cruiser Atlanta. She left New York on Monday bound for Newport and nothing has been heard from her. Secretary Tracy has been telegraphing to points from which news might be expected in hopes that he can get some tidings of her.

Pimples, boils, and other humors are liable to appear when the blood gets heated. To cure them, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

J. M. LOOSE RED CLOVER CO.—Gentlemen: Yours of the 26th inst. received. In reply would say that your Loose's Extract Red Clover Blossoms is meeting with a large and rapidly increasing sale with us and that it gives excellent satisfaction. We think it will take the lead for the cure of blood diseases, especially those of a cancerous nature. Yours truly,
DASSETT & L'HOMMEDIEU.

A record is about the only thing that is improved by being broken.

The mystery has been solved at last;
Our teeth no longer need decay,
All troubles of the mouth are past,
By SOZODONT they're swept away;
And young and old may smile secure
With lips and teeth so bright and pure.

A fitting tribute—the check that pays for your suit of clothes.

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient."

Catarrh is not simply an inconvenience, unpleasant to the sufferer and disgusting to others—it is an advanced outpost of approaching disease of worse type. Do not neglect its warning; it brings deadly evils in its train. Before it is too late, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It reaches the seat of the ailment, and is the only thing that will. You may dose yourself with quack medicines 'till it is too late—' till the streamlet becomes a resistless torrent. It is the matured invention of a scientific physician. "A word to the wise is sufficient."
